ARNNL BYLAWS

Association of Registered Nurses
of Newfoundland and Labrador

Member Information

Changes to the Registered Nurses Act (2008) and the subsequent introduction of new Registered Nurses Regulations (2013) required a review of all the current bylaws to make the necessary amendments to align with Council's new authority and to delete articles/sections that covered topics now included in the Regulations and/or ARNNL policies. In the interceding period, Council further approved and amended other bylaws. To facilitate member awareness of the changes made from 2008-2014 all amendments and approval dates are identified in a table attached as Schedule 'A'. To ensure alignment with Section 10 of the RN Act, Council will be embarking upon a full review of the bylaw structure.

Bylaws of the Association of Registered Nurses of Newfoundland and Labrador

Interpretation

In these Bylaws, terminology is interpreted as follows:

1. Act - the Newfoundland and Labrador Registered Nurses Act, Chapter R-9.1 (2008); amended 2009 c30 s14; 2012 c35 s16.
2. Bylaws - bylaws made under Section 10 of the RN Act.
3. Association – Association of Registered Nurses of Newfoundland & Labrador.
4. Council - the governing board of the Association established in accordance with the Act, Section 5.
5. Member – a person whose name is entered on the register.
6. Practising membership – active.
7. Non-Practicing membership – sustaining, inactive.
8. Lapsed membership – not in good standing through failure to meet current requirement(s).
9. Executive Director – executive secretary.
10. Ex-officio – voting or non-voting.
11. Mail – mail will be posted to each member at the nurse's last known address.

For the purpose of Bylaw Article II section 2 c (i) and (ii):

12. Shift is defined to mean any portion of time worked as a RN or NP within a 24-hour period.
13. Proof of number of shifts worked is defined to mean completion of the ARNNL form validating the number of days worked up to the date the license was issued and returned to ARNNL by the employer.

For the purpose of Bylaw Article X section 11-15:

14. Client - individuals, families, groups, populations or entire communities who require nursing expertise. The term “client” reflects the range of individuals and/or groups with whom nurses may be interacting. In some settings, other terms may be used such as patient or resident. In education, the client may also be a student/ in administration, the client may also be an employee; and in research, the client is usually a subject or participant.
15. Tampering with medication - an intentional act without authorization where a medication, or a medication package/packaging or label, is altered, or removed (either in part or in total), and replaced by another substance or package/packaging/label.

Bylaws of the Association of Registered Nurses of Newfoundland and Labrador

16. Misappropriation - an intentional act without mistake for an improper purpose.

Article X - Standards of Practice, Professional Ethics and Definitions Conduct Deserving of Sanction

Section 1

Standards of Practice and Professional Ethics:

- (i) Registrants must conduct themselves in accordance with the standards of practice and code of ethics adopted from time to time by Council.
- (ii) The Canadian Nurses Association's Code of Ethics for Registered Nurses constitutes the code adopted by the Council except where it may contravene the Act, Regulations or Bylaws of the Association.
- (iii) Standards of practice include all Standards documents for RN and NPs approved by Council.

Section 2

Conduct Deserving of Sanction: Interpretation of RN Act section 18(c)(i)-(v):

a) Professional misconduct

Professional misconduct for the purposes sections 18 to 35 of the Act shall include conduct of a registered nurse while directly engaged in the practice of nursing or relevant to the practice of nursing that does not adhere to the Standards of Practice for Registered Nurses, Code of Ethics and other standards of the profession, or which contravenes the Act, Regulations or Bylaws of the Association or other statutes applicable to the practice of nursing. Professional misconduct may arise from one incident or a pattern of conduct. Examples of professional misconduct are attached at Appendix A.

b) Professional incompetence

Professional incompetence for the purposes of sections 18 to 35 of the Act means the demonstration by a registered nurse's care of one or more clients that he or she lacks reasonable knowledge, skill, judgment and/or lack of concern for the client's welfare to the extent that client safety was placed in jeopardy, or to an extent that the registered nurse is unfit to continue to practise, or that his or her practice should be restricted, or that the registered nurse should comply with one or more of the remedial measures which may be ordered pursuant to subsection 27(2) or 28(3) of the Act or required pursuant to section 23(1) or section 22(1). Professional incompetence may arise from one incident or a pattern of careless conduct. Examples of professional incompetence are attached at Appendix B.

c) Conduct unbecoming a nurse

Conduct unbecoming a registered nurse for the purposes of sections 18 to 35 of the Act means conduct outside the practice of a registered nurse that would be reasonably regarded by registered nurses as disgraceful, dishonourable or harmful to the standing or reputation of the nursing profession. Conduct unbecoming a registered nurse may arise from one incident or a pattern of conduct and does not require that the conduct be relevant to the practice of nursing. Examples of conduct unbecoming registered nurse are attached at Appendix C.

d) Incapacity or unfitness to engage in the practice of nursing

Incapacity or unfitness to engage in the practice of nursing for the purposes of sections 18 to 35 of the Act means that a registered nurse's physical or mental condition is such that it makes it desirable in the interest of the public that the registered nurse no longer be permitted to practise or that his or her practice should be restricted. Examples of incapacity or unfitness to engage in the practice or nursing are attached at Appendix D.

e) Acting in Breach of the Act, the Registered Nurse Regulations or the Code of Ethics

Acting in Breach of the Act, the Regulations or the Code of Ethics for the purposes of sections 18-35 of the Act means conduct by a registered nurse that is in breach of the Act, the Regulations or Bylaws of the Association including the Code of Ethics for registered nurses which is approved by Council under the Bylaws. Examples of acting in breach of the Act, the Regulations or the Code of

Bylaws of the Association of Registered Nurses of Newfoundland and Labrador

Ethics are attached at Appendix E.

Article XI – Special Interest Groups

The Association may recognize groups of registered nurses who have a common interest for professional development in a defined area of practice as an ARNNL Special Interest Group provided that their mandate supports ARNNL objects. Such groups shall operate independently of the Association and according to their own By-laws and constitution. Council may establish guidelines for ARNNL Special Interest Groups.

Article XII – Auditors

Section 1

The auditors shall have access to all records, documents, books, accounts and vouchers of the Association and are entitled to require from the officers and employees of the Association such information as is necessary to enable them to report pursuant to the Act and generally as required by law.

Section 2

If between the times of the annual general meetings the auditors are unable to fulfill their duties as agreed or in the event Council is dissatisfied with the auditors, the Association shall call a special meeting of the Association to appoint an interim auditor to audit the accounts and report on the financial statements of the Association.

Article XIII – Financial Assistance Plan for Disciplinary Process – Repealed

Article XIV – Reserve Funds

The Council may establish reserve funds for specific purposes from time to time. The guidelines and criteria governing such funds shall be established in policy and reported to members in the audited financial statements at the annual general meeting.

Article XV – Trust Membership Fund – Repealed

Article XVI – Parliamentary Authority - Repealed

Article XVII – Repeal

All Bylaws of the Association heretofore existing are hereby repealed.
