

De-Registration – the removal of the name of a Respondent (a registered nurse or former registered nurse against whom an allegation of conduct deserving of sanction is made) from the register, maintained under the Registered Nurses Act, 2008, by an order where the Respondent's rights and privileges as a registered nurse cease. At no time in the future will the Respondent be permitted to apply for reinstatement or readmission to the practice of nursing in Newfoundland and Labrador.